

Who is LeDerick Horne?

Poet. Speaker. Advocate.

"LeDerick uses his gift for spoken-word poetry as the gateway to larger discussions on equal opportunity, pride, self-determination and hope for people with disabilities." (www.lederick.com)

"Labeled with a learning disability in the third grade, LeDerick Horne defies any and all labels. He's a dynamic spoken-word poet. A tireless advocate for all people with disabilities. An inspiring motivational speaker." (www.lederick.com)

TEDA is proud to welcome LeDerick as our keynote speaker on Monday, December 6, 2021 at the annual TEDA Conference in Waco, Texas.

Join us as he shares his own experience as a student with Dyslexia who was able to graduate from college with a BA in mathematics. LeDerick will introduce participants to a framework designed to help students develop positive identities as people with hidden disabilities.

He will also share tips to support Dyslexic students. Participants will explore an array of challenges facing students with Dyslexia, their families, and the educational professionals who support them. The audience will be given evidence-based strategies they can use to holistically support Dyslexic students so they can experience lasting success.

Want to know more...visit his website at www.lederick.com and get to know him better.