

History

TEDA is a professional organization founded in 1973 in Irving, Texas.

Mission Statement:

It is the mission of TEDA to promote the profession of Educational Diagnosticians through programs, research, and establishing and maintaining professional standards in order to better serve the educational needs of exceptional children and youth.

<http://txeda.org/>

Texas Educational Diagnosticians' Association

Philosophy

The Texas Educational Diagnosticians' Association promotes professionalism, competence, excellence, and continuing education within the organization to provide individuals with disabilities quality educational services in the state of Texas.

Professionalism

The Texas Educational Diagnosticians' Association (TEDA) is comprised of highly trained and skilled evaluation and assessment specialists. Members of TEDA maintain a high level of professionalism and competence through membership benefits and continuing education.

Member Benefits

- Our journal, The DiaLog: Journal of the Texas Educational Diagnosticians' Association.
- Optional Educators Professional Liability Insurance for School District Employees and Independent Contractors
- TEDA Annual Conference
- Professional and Leadership Development
- A strong professional network
- Members Only section on Website

Service

- Ensure high standards for students with disabilities and their families.
- Advocate on behalf of Educational Diagnosticians in Texas
- Collaborate with community